Eucharist on the Fourth Sunday of the Month. If you are planning a visit the best bet is to call Lori ahead of time so she can confirm the dates for your visit.

Lori: 780- 720-3444 or deniskare@gmail.com
The community also participates in various ecumenical events throughout the Church year.

During Holy Week we have a joint service for the residents of Foyer Sutton on Holy Thursday. On Good Friday we participate in the walk with the cross, starting at St-André’s Catholic Church, with stops at the Baptist Church, the United Church congregation, the Anglican Church and finishing with a soup lunch at the Anglican Church Hall. Proceeds are donated to a local charity.

Easter Sunday morning we participate in a sunrise celebration at the home of a parishioner followed by a pot-luck breakfast.

My ministry includes providing a space for Holy Listening to whatever people have to say without judgment or advice, encouraging them to be attentive and listen to the still, small inner voice of the Beloved calling them to fullness of life.

In addition to scheduled dates, we celebrate Eucharist most weekends. Please contact us at: photina61@gmail.com

ALL ARE WELCOME. This is a radically reformed, inclusive parish ministered by an ordained Roman Catholic Woman Priest celebrating all sacraments and serving your community working for gender equity and social justice for every woman, man and child. We welcome all to the table just as we believe Jesus did.
We celebrate liturgy in our home twice a month; I can be contacted for dates and times at:
